

Look for low hanging fruit in the first place, such as:

- Lock down on file types (e.g. executables, scripts)
- Lock down on outdated technology (e.g. flash)
- Examine current anti-virus set-up and configuration
- Examine current privileged access management (PAM)